8. Clean assigned cabin daily with campers and assist with KP (kitchen patrol).
9. Take initiative as a team player.

10. Perform all other duties as assigned by the Program Director or leadership staff.

Responsibilities and Other Specific Duties Explained:

1. There is a mandatory two-week staff training that will be held prior to the start of camp sessions. In some cases, this two-week training can be made up as a last resort. There will be at least two scheduled meetings per week for the remainder of the summer: one on Sundays before campers arrive and one on Fridays after all campers have gone home. There are two optional trainings: Waterfront Lifeguarding and/or becoming a challenge course facilitator. The cost of these trainings are covered by Montgomery Center and are highly recommended as they will provide more flexibility in program scheduling and offer year-long, part-time work opportunities.
2. Being a part of camp staff is an exercise in communal living. Summer staff will create a covenant during staff training. It is expected that this will be the standard of how individual staff members live and interact with each other and the outdoors for the entirety of the summer.
3. Assigned campers will be the counselors' responsibility from the moment they arrive until the moment they leave. A camper should never be left unsupervised and headcounts will need to be done continuously throughout the day. On average, counselors spend 23 hours a day with their assigned campers.
4. Lead your small group into a cohesive and positive dynamic through age-appropriate language. Unacceptable behaviors need to be managed in a timely manner and, when necessary, reported to leadership staff or Program Director to be addressed. Counselors are to be role models and lead by example as campers deepen their faith. Be approachable.
5. Camp activities that counselors will be participating in or leading include, but are not limited to, small and large group games, team building exercises, labyrinth, swimming, archery, challenge course highs and lows, zip lining, canoeing, vespers and bible studies, climbing wall, arts and crafts, campfire cooking, boating activities, and evening devotions.
6. Counselors should refer to their staff handbook for continual knowledge of camp policies and emergency procedures. Counselors must be able to maintain control of a group and diffuse anxiety in emergency situations and take action when needed.
7. Camp policies will be covered in detail during staff training. All staff and volunteers are to abide by those policies. A covenant agreement will be signed during staff training stating your willingness to comply.
8. Cabin cleanup will be done each morning after breakfast. Counselors are responsible for ensuring their living quarters remain tidy and clean throughout the week. Groups will rotate responsibility for helping with KP (kitchen patrol) to ensure tables are set, dishes are washed, and that the Dining Hall is clean after mealtimes.

9. Counselors are to be flexible when assigned to alternate roles (program staff, lifeguard, etc), as well as, to schedule changes.
10. Be ready. Camp is a fun and fast paced environment with opportunities to slow down and spend time with God. Camp is an incredible gift and privilege. The expectations are high, the time is valuable, and opportunities to grow are imminent.
